

Concerned about your child?

Whatever the reason...

Struggling to make friends

Giftedness

Anxiety concerns

Adoption or foster-related issues

Behavior problems

Nutrition or feeding issues

Parents divorcing or facing other life changes

Developmental delay such as speech-language or motor

Vision or hearing disabilities

Food allergies

Academic struggles or learning disabilities

Attention issues or ADHD

LGBTQ+ youth

Formal diagnoses such as autism spectrum disorder, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome or epilepsy

Connecting for Kids can help.

You're not alone

Connecting for Kids programs are designed to educate and support families of children (birth – 12 years) who are struggling. Our free programs are open to the public and free childcare (provided by CFK) is available.

Education

Attend presentations on various childhood topics by local, pediatric professionals.

Participate with your child in our hands-on, family training programs.

Research topics of concern using our online education materials.

Find local pediatric professionals and programs through resource fairs and our online directory.

Support

Meet families facing similar struggles at our support groups.

Engage with others through our online communities.

Contact individuals who have similar concerns using our Parent Match Program.

Connect one-on-one with staff about your specific concerns.

connectingforkids.org

Email: info@connectingforkids.org | Call/Text: 440-570-5908
(para español: 440-907-9130)

Connecting for Kids General Flier

(screen-reader friendly version)

Concerned about your child? Whatever the reason, Connecting for Kids can help.

Reader note: the first page includes examples of reasons that families have contacted Connecting for Kids. These reasons include:

- Anxiety concerns
- Parents divorcing or other life changes
- Vision or hearing disabilities
- LGBTQ+ youth
- Giftedness
- Nutrition or feeding issues
- Food allergies
- Academic struggles or learning disabilities
- Struggling to make friends
- Behavior problems
- Adoption or foster-related issues
- Developmental delay such as speech-language or motor
- Attention issues or ADHD
- Formal diagnoses such as autism spectrum disorder, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, or epilepsy

You're not alone.

Connecting for Kids programs are designed to educate and support families of children (birth – 12 years) who are struggling. Our free programs are open to the public and free childcare (provided by CFK) is available.

Education

Attend presentations on various childhood topics by local, pediatric professionals.

Participate with your child in our hands-on, family training programs.

Research topics of concern using our online education materials.

Find local pediatric professionals and programs through resource fairs and our online directory.

Support

Meet families facing similar struggles at our support groups.

Engage with others through our online communities.

Contact individuals who have similar concerns using our Parent Match Program.

Connect one-on-one with staff about your specific concerns.

Contact Information

www.connectingforkids.org

Email: info@connectingforkids.org

Call/text: 440-570-5908 (para español: 440-907-9130)

Social Media

Facebook: facebook.com/connectingforkids

Instagram: @connectforkids

Twitter: @connectforkids

Pinterest: pinterest.com/connectforkids